

Envisage
International

As international experience becomes more a career necessity, and the number of students who travel or study around the world continues to increase, the vision of Envisage International remains the same. Our mission is to empower and encourage students to pursue an international education, and provide them with the tools they need to educate themselves and experience the world.

Envisage International owns and operates the largest international student facing network of websites, reaching over 4 million international students annually. The sites are geared toward providing information, resources, products and services to students all around the world. Our primary domains are:

InternationalStudent.com

As the most comprehensive resource for international students that wish to study in the US on the web, InternationalStudent.com provides deep and quality content regarding international education to students from all around the globe. In addition to being the definitive resource for studying in a foreign country, the site helps them to connect with schools directly through our school search tool that has over 2400 schools that accept international students.

ESLdirectory.com

The ESL Directory provides students with access to one of the most comprehensive lists of "English as a Second Language" programs from all around the world. Our initial free listing directory has allowed the list to grow to well over 1,250 programs from all corners of the globe. Students can visit the site, research their options and contact the schools directly at no cost to them or to the school.

Lead Generation

Focusing solely on international education, we are delivering thousands of exclusive, high quality leads to schools and partners each month. Through our unique, organic approach to lead generation, our leads convert! Our exclusive leads take away the competition and allow you to focus on converting the student from lead to enrollment at a much higher rate.

You tell us what the ideal student looks like that will fit your institution, and we will deliver them in real time. Are you looking for high school seniors, or older students already holding a Bachelors or Master's degree? Do you want students interested in studying law, culinary, or liberal arts from the UK? Or maybe an MBA from India, Singapore or South Korea? We can match the ideal international student to your school's programs.

How we deliver:

- School Profile Page – We will develop a custom school profile page for your institution on our flagship site, InternationalStudent.com that will serve as the focal point of our marketing efforts. The purpose of the profile page is to represent your school and describe the available programs available to international students. The school profile includes:
 - o School logo and full contact information
 - o Current student profiles and testimonials
 - o Listing of degrees offered
 - o Integration of Twitter and Facebook pages
 - o Campus photo stream
- Online Marketing – We will market your school's profile page to our community of international students, using the reach of our network of sites, social media, newsletters, content generation/ distribution, email marketing and other efforts to provide you with high caliber international student leads.
- Concierge Service – Our exclusive Concierge Service is available to students on InternationalStudent.com and ESLdirectory.com and allows them to be matched with a school that meets their education needs. Students can create a profile, submit their information which we then match with the appropriate school.

What makes our lead generation better?

- Leads are exclusive
- International education is all we do
- Organic traffic
- Real-time lead delivery
